1.0 Advertising

Promotions and advertising distributed by the Permit Holder shall not be presented in such a way that the school board(s) are seen to endorse the rental group or the specific activities of the rental.

No advertising about a rental shall be displayed on school or board property unless otherwise approved by the board(s).

The school board(s) facility name can only appear on promotions and advertisement as a location site.

Board staff will not respond to public inquiries of any kind regarding activities and events for which permitted use of space has been granted.
